

John D. Poole
1910 - 2009

Born in Indianahoma, Oklahoma, Mr. Poole attended Oklahoma State University. He worked for Continental Emsco Company from 1946 until his retirement in 1976. While there, he held positions as a pump repairman and store manager. Mr. Poole spent most of those years in El Dorado, Kansas, but transferred to the Tulsa Company office in 1962. He spent three years there. Mr. Poole served on the Butler County Historical Society Board of Directors, home of the Kansas Oil Museum, after his retirement.